LIVE MUSIC

Nina et Cetera

The Warp and Weft of American Music
Sunday, November 12 // 2pm

Join us in listening to music by Johnny Cash, Elvis, Ray Charles, Robert Johnson, Mahalia Jackson, Bessie Smith, Sister Rosetta Tharpe and many others. A sprinkling of anecdotes which highlight the diversity and rich history of American Music ranging from jazz, blues, gospel, folk, and rock and roll.

Toby Tobias

Journey From Johannesburg
Sunday, December 10 // 2pm

A performance which tells the story of Toby's journey through 3 continents and takes the form of his original songs interspersed with small narrated vignettes about his life growing up in Johannesburg, South Africa and Jerusalem, Israel and finally New York, USA. The show's message is one of racial equality, understanding of each other's cultures and religions and a strong desire for togetherness in a world which seeks to divide rather than bring together. (a B.O.B. program)

Green Golly Project Presents:

"Now We Can Sing" Flute Show

Thursday, December 7 // 2 pm

A moving and inspiring musical event centering on music that was banned to Jewish musicians by the Nazis in 1930's Germany. It follows these musical artists through that dreadful era as they ultimately migrate to a new land and establish new lives. Flutist Barbara Siesel and singer, songwriter and storyteller Keith Torgan perform.

COMMUNITY ART MURAL

Saturday, December 2 // 10am - 3pm

A community that creates art together can create change together.

Join The Makeshift Movement, Oceanside S.A.F.E. Coalition, and the Oceanside Library in creating a specially-designed mural for our town.

All ages are encouraged to attend! You can pop-in / pop-out throughout the day. Additional art activities will be featured; mental health and substance abuse resources will be provided; and refreshments will be served throughout the day.

Funding for this project is provided by the Friends of the Oceanside Library.

LECTURES

Here's Johnny: Part 2

Thursday, November 16 // 2 pm

This program covers Johnny's career as the Tonight Show moved to Hollywood from NY in 1972, until his last show in 1992 for a total of 30 years.

Guests include Elizabeth Taylor, Jane Fonda, Don Rickles, Steve Martin, Robin Williams, Bette Midler & many others.

There will be commentaries by Jerry Seinfeld, David Letterman & Jay Leno and others.

Jane Austen in the Turn of the Nineteenth Century

Tuesday, December 12 // 2 pm

Join us in celebrating Jane Austen's birthday in December. Author and historian, Marc DeSantis, will teach us about how Rural England in the late eighteenth century provided the bucolic backdrop for Jane Austen's unforgettable novels. In her short life, Jane would see England well on its way to becoming the first industrialized nation in the world.

Misty Copeland & Roberto Bolle: Dance Superstars

Thursday, December 14th // 2 pm

Join Marilyn Carminio in a lecture about Misty Copeland, the quintessential American success story. Misty is the first African American to become a principal dancer at American Ballet Theater. Roberto Bolle, a cultural icon in his native Italy, is internationally acknowledged as one of the greatest male dancers of our time.

A SCRIPT-IN-HAND THEATRE PRODUCTION

LOVE LETTERS

Sunday, December 3 // 2pm

Two lovers exchange letters over the course of 50 years.
Directed by Richard Kaplan, written by A.J. Gurney.

TUESDAY BOOK DISCUSSIONS

November 14 // 2 pm

THE FEVER TREE by Jennifer McVeigh

Set in 1880's South Africa, a woman becomes entangled with two very different men. Only when the rumor of an epidemic takes her into the dark heart of the diamond mines does she see her road to happiness. (a B.O.B. program)

Discussion Leader: Edna Ritzenberg

December 12 // 2 pm

LILLIAN BOXFISH TAKES A WALK by Kathleen Rooney

Join Lillian Boxfish on the last day of 1984, as she takes a walk. As she crosses the unsafe landscape of a run-down Manhattan, she recalls a long and eventful life.

Discussion leader: Fran Cohen

Books are available at the Circulation Desk one month prior to the discussion date.

SUBMISSION ROUNDTABLE

Saturday, November 18 // NOON - 2 pm

Join Nassau County's Poet Laureate Peter V. Dugan and Prof. Christina Rau and submit your writing: poetry, short stories, memoirs, and more.

Writers: bring your works electronically or in hard copy. We'll go through basic websites to find journals plus a list of journals that might be appropriate for all works (poetry, short stories, memoirs, etc.). We will log onto Submittable to learn how to navigate the most-used submission website. Then we will submit!

Lunch will be served--then stay for the Poetry & Prose!

POETRY & PROSE/OPEN MIC

Saturday, November 18 // 2 - 4 pm

Nassau County's Poet Laureate Peter V. Dugan and Sharon Anderson host these lively literary events that bring together established poets and writers as well as talented new voices.

Featured Guests for November:

BEYOND OUR BORDERS: SOUTH AFRICA

In our new series, Beyond Our Borders, we spotlight one country each newsletter. Look for more B.O.B. programs (movies, arts & crafts, cooking classes, lectures, book discussions, etc.) throughout the newsletter-- in the Adult, Teen & Children's sections.

South Africa: From Apartheid to Democracy

Thursday, November 30 // 2 pm

Join Dr. Grant Saff, Professor of Global Studies and Geography from Hofstra University, for a lecture on South Africa. This talk will provide background to explain how South Africa moved toward the ending of apartheid, and that the talk of the "miracle" was a simplification of the actual process that in turn unfairly raised the expectations that many people had for the "new" South Africa. (a B.O.B. program)

I've Been There—South Africa

Sunday, December 17 // 2 pm

Have you traveled to South Africa? Would you like to go someday? Bring your stories and your photos and share your experiences with others. Light refreshments served. (a B.O.B. program)

For Moms of Children with Special Needs

Tuesday, Dec 5 // 7-8pm &

Saturday, Dec 9 // 10-11am

"You are only as happy as your least happy child" is an adage that feels true for many of us. Mothers who have that child, the one who needs every ounce of inner strength and patience they have, or the one they worry about the most – need to develop a strong level of inner peace. Only by working on ourselves, can we be the best Mom that they need us to be. Come connect with others who 'get it' at a mindset and energy workshop, created to support you in your quest to be the best mom you can be!
